SHOTGUN OR BIBLE?

Last Sunday all the ministers of Atlanta preached on the subject "Obedience to Law." This is a part of the work taken up by the Gospel Laymen's Union of Atlanta relative to the adjustment of the trouble between the races, which was recently manifested in aggravated form in that city. This work was begun immediately after the riots in September, and the idea of the men who are concerning themselves in this practical Christian work is to change public opinion in regard to this question by enlisting the best negroes and whites in the cause. Ex-Gov. Northern, of Georgia is one of the most active leaders of this movement and is enthusiastic and zealous in the belief that Christianity will solve this difficult question in Atlanta and elsewhere. There have been several conferences between the Gospel Union and negro ministers and laymen and the results are reported to be very encouraging. The Atlanta Gospel Union has been at work for four years and now has a membership of three hundred prominent Christian business men.

While Senator Tillman advocates the shotgun as the proper regulator of the negro race in the South, ex-Gov. Northern and his three hundred fellow workers in the Gospel Laymen's Union of Atlanta are peacefully and effectively applying the principles of Christianity instead.

FOR KENTUCKY.

Fifty thousand dollars subscribed in five minutes is the record of Southwest Virginia in raising funds for proper representation of that section of the state at the Jamestown Exposition. Kentuckians are putting up for the same purpose with a little more reluctance, but the Commission, with aid of the press, will doubtless be able to create interest sufficient to raise the necessary amount. All should contribute something to this effort to make a creditable showing for Kentucky at Jamestown next year and no contribution is too small. The time is short, therefore promptness on the part of all friends of the movement is essential to the best success. THE BEE has been authorized by the Commission to receive and transmit subscriptions to this fund. We are interested to see Kentucky stand at the front among States at the Jamestown Exposition, as everywhere else, and shall be more than pleased to handle the subscriptions of all who find it convenient to so subscribe.

Teaching the Negro Industry.

(Nashville American.)

Andrew Carnegie buys his shoes at Tuskegee, where they are made by colored students. So Booker Washington says. He also says that during the past year the Tuskegee students made 2,000,000 bricks, that they cultivated 800 acres of land and a few days ago harvested 260 acres of sweet potatoes. They have also built a railroad one mile long, but Booker says it is just as wide as the New York Central. There are 1,500 students at Tuskegee, the property of which is valued at $800,000, and which has an endowment of $1,500,000. Washington has the correct idea, and is doing a useful work. He is seeking

RESPONSIBILITY OF POLITICIANS.

(Owensboro Inquirer.)

In casting about for causes for the lawless acts that have been perpetrated in the dark tobacco belt the responsibility of the politician must not be overlooked. One of the stock arguments of the professional politician is abuse of the corporations. He will assert that the trust magnates are infamous scoundrels who ought to be wearing prison stripes, if not hung. The prejudice of the voters is appealed to, and their baser passions aroused to a pitch of desperation so that all that is often needed for commission of lawless acts is a leader. The politician too often indulges in charges against the corporationists that are mere assertions for no other purpose than that of catching the voter who does not read, think and act for himself. It is often the case that the demagogue wins his way into office by arousing the feelings of the voters against the trusts by a verbal tirade which is characterized by more invective than fact, and after getting the office he seeks does the bidding of the trusts he has so savagely abused.

The insincerity of so many of the politicians has resulted in injustice to the people, and sometimes as great as the oppressions of the trusts. Many of the trusts are bad, but the same may be said of many of the professional partisan politicians.

to teach the negro the dignity and the value of labor, of honest toil. He says:

"We are changing the ideal of the black race. We are teaching them that labor is honorable and that idleness is not. And they are recognizing it, too."

"We have graduated 6,000 students, and they are for the most part sober, industrious, useful men and women. I know whereof I speak, for there is an institute instructor who spends most of his time keeping in touch with graduates. There is no color line in skilled labor in the South. Our students are learning the dignity and the civilizing power there is in working with the hands."

"Twenty-Three" and "Skidoo."

(North American Review.)

The use of slang by boys finds some excuse in unavoidable association with unrefined men; its use by girls is simply odious and a direct reflection upon the attention and taste of their mothers. This is easily proven by inquiry into the sources of the petted phrases. Take, for example, two of the latest—"twenty-three" and "skidoo." These have slightly different meanings, the exact interpretation of the former being "to the rear," and of the latter, "scamper in haste." The former had its origin at the race track, which ordinarily has only sufficient width to accommodate twenty-two horses standing side by side, so that the twenty-third is necessarily relegated to an unfavorable position. The use of the coined phrase, therefore, implies a knowledge of details of professional sport, the possession of which by a young girl is distinctly unbecoming. The second is a mere substitute for "skedaddle," itself of American origin, and now regarded by common sense as egregiously vulgar. Scores of like illustrations might be put in evidence; but these should suffice to convince a mother, teacher or even comparatively ignorant girl herself of the desirability of seeking the roots of terms whose use she has come to regard as an evidence of smartness.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse because of the uncertainty as to their harmless character, but is a medicine of known composition, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol in its makeup. The "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is in fact the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, sold through druggists, that does not contain alcohol and that too in large quantities. Furthermore, it is the only medicine for woman's special diseases, the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of some of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card or letter, or Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Don't forget that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for woman's weaknesses and delicate ailments, is not a patent or secret medicine, being the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated and graduated physician, engaged in the practice of his chosen specialty—that of diseases of women—that its ingredients are printed in plain English on every bottle wrapper; that it is the only medicine especially designed for the cure of woman's diseases that contains no alcohol, and the only one that has a professional endorsement worth more than all the so-called "testimonials" ever published for other medicines. Send for these endorsements as above. They are free for the asking.

If you suffer from periodical headache, backache, dizziness, pain or dragging down sensation low down in the abdomen, weak back, have disagreeable and weakening catarrhal, pelvic drain, or are in distress from being long on your feet, then you may be sure of benefit from taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic.

BOY'S HEAD ONE SOLID SORE

Hair All Came Out and He Suffered Very Much—Under Doctor Three Months and No Better—Permanently Cured at Expense of $2.

CUTICURA REMEDIES WORK WONDERS

Mr. A. C. Barnett, proprietor of a general store in Avard, Oklahoma, tells in the following grateful letter how Cuticura cured him and his son of terrible eczemas:

"My little boy had eczema. His head was one solid sore, all over his scalp; his hair all came out, and he suffered very much. I had a physician treat him, but at the end of three months he was no better. I remembered that the Cuticura Remedies had cured me, and after giving him two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, according to directions, and using Cuticura Soap and Ointment on him daily, his eczema left him, his hair grew again, and neither he nor myself have had any eczema since."

As to his own case, Mr. Barnett says: "I suffered with eczema, a burning, itching, breaking out on my face for more than a year. I took treatment from physicians for several months, which did no good. I was then advised to try Cuticura. I took six bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and used Cuticura Soap and Ointment freely every day. I began to improve soon after starting to use them, and when I had taken the six bottles of the Resolvent my face had become clear, I had good color, and all eruptions had left me."

"We use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment in our family now for general use, and it keeps our skin soft and healthy. I cheerfully recommend the Cuticura Remedies for all cases of eczema." (Signed) A. C. Barnett, Avard, Oklahoma, Mar. 30, 1905.

surprise. Miss Hibbs was entertaining the Blue Stocking Club at her home Monday evening. After the program was completed, Miss Hibbs disappeared and in a short while the folding doors between the parlor and dining room were opened and the bride and groom stood under the marriage bell ready for the ceremony which was soon performed.

They left on the 10:30 train for New Orleans to spend their honeymoon. Miss Hibbs is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. E. Hibbs, of Madisonville. Mr. Mitchell is the popular manager of the Cumberland Telephone Co., in that city.

Arm Broken at Play.

Miss Bessie Coyle, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Coyle, met with a painful accident Tuesday. While running and playing on the school ground she fell breaking a bone in her right arm at the wrist. Thinking it was only a sprain she went to one of the neighbors and had the arm bandaged up but not feeling able to return to school the brave little girl walked home. Medical aid was called and upon examination the bone was found to be broken. She will be disabled for some time.

It is said in New York that there are seven dictators in the financial and business world, and that those men are John D. Rockefeller, J. P. Morgan, James J. Hill, James Stillman, George F. Baker, Jacob Schiff and E. H. Harriman. These seven men represent interests that cover every possible phase of business enterprise in America.
